

Carrie D Martin

April 9, 1960 - October 9, 2023

It is with a heavy heart that we say goodbye to our loving mom, Carrie D Martin. She was born April 9, 1960 to Darrell Jr. and Kaye Martin. She is survived by her children Jennifer, Kathryn, and Joseph Jimenez and her grandchildren Elijah, Leon Morales, and Leticia Jimenez. Along with a younger brother, Darrell W Martin III his wife, Stephanie and their two children, Stella and Evan. She worked as a cashier at Fiesta Mart. She enjoyed daily talks and fun times with her grandchildren. Very often she could be found reading romance novels. Carrie will always be loved and remembered forever and a day. Memorial Services with family will be determined at a later date.

Carrie Martin's favorite saying, "Time never hesitates....Moment by Moment life changes,

Tribute Wall

KS

“ I worked with Carrie at Walmart West Columbia so shocked to here this news. Everyone at Walmart sends prayers and condolences.

Kimberley Sunday - October 25, 2023 at 10:01 AM

TJ

“ Carrie, I was so lucky to know you. You are. Good mother and the kids were lucky to have you too. I met you when our kids went to school together and so glad I did. You I'll be so missed but I know you are happy where you are and now can watch over everyone at one time. RIP sweet lady.

Tamara Janssen - October 24, 2023 at 07:21 PM

PJ

“ I've known Carrie since our days at Bullocks, at Oakridge Mall , 1981 , San Jose, Ca .She loved life and she was the life of the party , She loved her family , especially the grandkids !

Patty Jacobs - October 24, 2023 at 06:51 PM

JD

“ My Heart, Sympathy And Prayers Are With My Beautiful Friend Kathryn And The Entire Family At This Time.

Jessica Davidson-Gillum - October 24, 2023 at 06:24 PM